Lawrance Choi is an Associate Attorney at Mazzola Lindstrom LLP, where he assists with complex commercial litigation, insurance defense, and appellate matters.

His practice includes legal research, drafting motions, managing discovery, preparing deposition materials, and supporting trial preparation on a wide range of litigation matters. Prior to joining Mazzola Lindstrom LLP, Lawrance worked at a national law firm where he handled product liability matters.

Lawrance's legal experience also includes judicial externships with the Honorable John F. Kness of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois and the Honorable Stephen M. McNamee of the United States District Court for the District of Arizona.

He also served as a student attorney with Northwestern Pritzker School of Law's Complex Civil Litigation and Investor Protection Center, where he assisted in representing clients in complex commercial disputes and consumer protection matters.

Lawrance earned his Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Northwestern Pritzker School of Law, where he served as Online Executive Editor of the Journal of Criminal Law & Criminology. He received his Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Brown University.

He is admitted to practice law in the State of New York and is fluent in Korean.
